

Space

by Emma Leslie

Feeling weightless
Drifting off and away.
The euphoria,
The calm.

Seeing the moon,
The stars, the sun.
The galaxy sweeps me off my feet
Seizing the worries of my world.

Planet Earth is blue
And all I can do,
Is watch.
Watch the world spin.

Out of space,
After three days.
Earth isn't the same.
My adventure has ended
In space.
